Grapple Question:

What if Jesus Is Lord?

Kids Learn:

Jesus Is God

Dig Into the Bible:

Psalm 110; Acts 2:34-36

How do you demonstrate to your kids that Jesus is Lord? Believe it or not, they're watching and learning from everything you do. It may not seem like it right now, but when they've passed their teens (maybe even much sooner), they'll be surprisingly like you.

Don't feel guilty—feel good! You've been specially chosen by God to be his representative to your preteen. God knew you were the best one for the job, and what's more, God is very willing to help you out. He is God after all. Don't try to be like anyone else, and don't try to be perfect. Just be you. Look to Jesus, the Lord of your life, for help. Hey, isn't that demonstrating that Jesus is Lord?
